Read the passage. Then answer the questions below.

In a sense, the term "stagefright" is a misnomer – fright being a shock for which one is unprepared. For professional performers, the unmooring terror hits as they prepare to do the very thing they're trained to do. According to one British medical study, actors' stress levels on opening night are equivalent "to that of a car accident victim". When Sir Laurence Olivier was in his sixties, he considered retiring from the stage because of stagefright. It "is always waiting outside the door", he wrote in Confessions of an Actor. "You either battle or walk away". The Canadian piano virtuoso Glenn Gould, who suffered from disabling stagefright, did walk away, abandoning the public platform for the privacy of the recording studio. "To me the ideal artist-to audience relationship is one to zero", he said.

- 9. According to the passage, what would be a more appropriate name for stagefright?
 - o impromptu shock response
 - o calculated panic
 - pre-performance anxiety
 - acute reaction disorder
- 10. In context, which of the following best describes the use of "unmooring" (line 2) in the passage?
 - unjustified fear
 - anxiety that has been freed from the body
 - anxiety so great that it feels that the performer is without any support
 - o a sense of nervousness that keeps the performer motivated
- 11. Which of the following is NOT a potential result of stagefright as it is described in the passage?
 - o an actor channels his anxiety into an emotional performance
 - o a musician fights through nervousness to perform a difficult number
 - a comedian gives up his career because he can no longer think of good material
 - o a singer permanently quits performing due to intense fear of the audience

- 12. Which of the following words, present in the text, means "skilled"?
 - o unprepared
 - trained
 - o equivalent
 - o ideal
