

TEOLOGIA 2 - QUESTIONI DI ANTROPOLOGIA TEOLOGICA ED ECCLESIOLOGIA (ITO080)

1. language

Italian.

2. course contents

Coordinator: Prof. Elio MO

Year course: II°

Semester: 1°-2°

3. bibliography

The reference texts will be indicated during the course

4. learning objectives

To introduce students to the knowledge of man proper to Christian anthropology by addressing the fundamental themes of existence.

The course pursues the objective of introducing students to the great themes of Christian philosophical anthropology in order to offer a vision of man and the world and an adequate reflection on the main themes of human existence keeping in mind the positions that prescind or deny the existence of God and the issues that imply it. The aim is also to focus on the question of the meaning of existence and of human and personal life.

5. PREREQUISITES

None.

6. teaching methods

Lectures. Use of media. Discussions. Personal study

Teaching is conducted through the use of institutional platform.

7. other informations

Teaching is conducted through the use of institutional platform.

8. methods for verifying learning and for evaluation

Oral exam

The examination will be conducted in presence mode.

9. program

The topics on which the reflection of this course will be:

- 1) the question of man as a question about himself,
- 2) the question of the human-world relationship,
- 3) the question of interpersonal relationships,
- 4) the question of death.
- 5) the question of the unlimited future or the end of time.